

REMARKS

As an initial matter, Applicants thank the Examiner for carefully reviewing the case and allowing the pending claims. Applicants propose herein amendments to claim 44 to address clerical errors in punctuation, ambiguity, consistency, and/or grammar. These amendments do not affect the scope of the pending claims as no new subject matter was added and no new issues were raised.

Conclusion

In light of these remarks, Applicants respectfully request the proposed amendments be entered prior to the issuance of the Application.
